Manure Applicator Training
DEC Approved Training for CAFO Farms

Tuesday, December 11, 2018

10:30 am - 12:30 pm

Frank Bratt Ag Center, 3542 Turner Road, Jamestown, NY

This informational meeting is for all farm owners, family members, and employees who manage their farm's manure. All farms, regardless of size are encouraged to attend.

This is a DEC approved Manure Applicator Training that is required for CAFO farms. A certificate will be provided to each farm that participates in the meeting.

Karl Czymmek, Senior Extension Associate with Cornell PRO-DAIRY will present this manure applicator training program. Topics to be discussed will include:

- Water quality concerns
- Managing under various manure spreading conditions (winter, wet and High risk conditions)
- Manure storage, transfer, hauling and spills
- Managing under Karst conditions (sinkholes, springs, underground rapidly moving drainage systems)
- Manure application record keeping
- 6 Rules for CAFO farms.

To accurately plan for meeting handouts and refreshments, please RSVP with names of individuals planning to attend by contacting Lisa Kempisty, Extension Educator, at 716-664-9502 Ext 203 or lj4@cornell.edu by Friday, December 7th. This educational program is being organized by Cornell Cooperative Extension of Chautauqua County in cooperation with WNY Crop Management and Cornell PRO-DAIRY.
